Behind the wall
Huldah Btsue

The piece was based on domestic violence. The group used four still images. The first still image showed a happy family where the dad was in the middle with his right hand on the mum's shoulder. This showed me that even though they acted like a happy family his right hand on his wife's shoulder showed me that he was always violent and he was forcing her to do what he wanted. Also the dad was in the middle which was a good use of level because it showed me that he was the one in control and he had power over the family. In the first image the grandparents were behind the dad with sad faces on which showed me that they weren't happy about their daughter marrying a horrible man and it also showed that they couldn't do anything about it because they were standing behind him, the dad had the power. On the second image it showed the dad attacking his wife and the rest of the family with sad faces, this showed me that the dad was not nice to his wife and the family knew it but they just couldn't do anything about it but just watch in sadness. The third image showed the dad putting on a normal face with the rest of the family putting a sad
