Dear Mrs. Miller,

I am writing in reference to the receptionist position available at Albright Corporate Services. After careful review of the position description, I am confident that I am an exceptional candidate.

In my previous receptionist position, I worked for a medium-sized office in which I assisted a staff of five with administrative and office duties. In that role, I was responsible for answering a phone with seven lines, processing and filing office paperwork, writing interoffice memos, dictating and transcribing letters and related correspondence, and entering data into Excel and Access spreadsheets.

After reviewing my resume and references, I believe that you will also find that I am an excellent fit for this position. If you have any further questions, please don't hesitate to contact me using the information at the top of this letter. Thank you for your time and consideration in reviewing my information.

Respectfully,

Cynthia Rosenthal

Dear [Hiring Manager's Name],

I am writing to apply for the position of Retail Manager at the Westwood branch of Nordstrom at the Westwood Mall. I have worked in retail as a manager since 2010 and have a wealth of experience in the fashion and clothing industry. In my current position as a manager, I have been responsible for over $150K of revenue above and beyond company projections, and have significantly cut costs for my branch. As a matter of fact, my current store has been awarded best branch in Southern California under my supervision.

Beyond simple sales numbers, I have directly trained a large number of new employees and have shown myself capable of motivating and organizing my team to restock and decorate our store in a very short time. I maintain friendly relationships with all team members and upper-management and corporate alike, and am often complimented for my friendly and helpful demeanor.

Between my years of experience, capacity in management, and career achievements, I am confident I would be a fantastic addition to Nordstrom at Westwood's management team. If you are so inclined, I would jump at the opportunity to visit you for an interview. Thank you for your time and consideration of my application. I look forward to hearing back from you at your convenience. Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Your Name
